

Below are the Nominees as of March 15, 2015 of the various awards given on Saturday May 9, 2015 at our inaugural Blacks n' Business, Blacks n' Technology fundraiser to be held at the Hyatt Regency Hotel, Santa Clara (across the street from the SF 49er Stadium).

You should check in every now and then to see an updated status of the nominees.

Nominees:

For The Silicon Valley Black Chamber of Commerce's
"Spirit of Excellence Award in Business"

- Bernard Tyson – CEO Kaiser Permanente
- John Thompson – Chairman of Microsoft
- Ken Coleman – SAAMA Chairman
- Shellye Archambeau – CEO Metric Stream

Bernard Tyson

John Thompson

Ken Coleman

Shellye Archambeau

Nominees:

For The Silicon Valley Black Chamber of Commerce's
"Business & Technology Legacy Award"

Jerry Lawson – Inventor of modern game console

&

The Silicon Valley Black Chamber of Commerce's
"Spirit of Excellence Award in Technology"

Roy Clay, Sr. – Silicon Valley Tech Pioneer

Jerry Lawson

Roy Clay, Sr.

Nominees:

For The Silicon Valley Black Chamber of Commerce's
"Next Generation of Excellence, Achievement Award"

- Wayne Sutton – General Partner at BUILDUP.vc
- Tristan Walker – CEO Walker & Co
- Erik Moore – CEO Base Ventures, VC firm

Wayne Sutton

Tristan Walker

Erik Moore